

PROMILITARES

// ADVERBS

MODIFY VERBS, ADJECTIVES AND OTHER ADVERBS

She sang badly.

It's terribly cold today.

They're playing unusually fast.

ADJECTIVE x ADVERB

~~"She danced happy."~~ She danced happily.

~~"They drive careful."~~ They drive carefully.

// ADVERBS

TYPES:

Frequency: never, hardly ever, seldom, rarely, sometimes, occasionally, frequently, often, usually, Always

Certainty: probably, certainly, definitely, clearly, obviously, maybe, perhaps

Time: yesterday, eventually, in June, last year, tonight, tomorrow, now

Place: upstairs, around, here, there, to bed, in Brazil, out of the window

Degree: a little bit, pretty, quite, extremely, a lot, remarkably, so, too, very, totally, fairly, slightly

// ATTENTION

Manner: carefully, badly, cautiously, loudly, quickly, anxiously, professionally, quietly...

GERALMENTE: ADJECTIVE + LY

Alguns adjetivos terminam em LY

Friendly, lovely, cowardly, lonely, silly, ugly, holy, lively

She gave me a friendly smile.

Her singing was lovely.

She smiled in a friendly way.

IN A/AN _____ WAY or MANNER

// EXCEPTIONS

ADJECTIVE - ADVERB

GOOD – WELL

FAST – FAST

DAILY – DAILY

WEEKLY – WEEKLY

MONTHLY - MONTHLY

EARLY – EARLY

LOW – LOW

It's a daily paper. -> It comes out daily.

An early train. -> I got up early.

Rodrigo is a good teacher. -> Rodrigo teaches well.

INGLÊS

// ATTENTION

Hard – difícil, árduo, duro

Hard = with a lot of force, energetically

Hardly = almost not

I trained really hard for the marathon.

Her brother hardly works.

Late – tarde, atrasado

Late = not on time

Lately = recently

I hate arriving late.

I haven't been to the cinema much lately.

// ATTENTION

High - alto

High = refers to height

Highly = very much

Throw it as high as you can.

I can highly recommend it.

Free – gratuito

Free = without payment

Freely = without limit or restriction

You can eat free in my restaurant whenever you want.

You can speak freely. I won't tell anyone what you say.

// EXPRESSÕES INTERESSANTES

Dead = exactly, completely, very

We are dead sure about it.

Carol is always dead tired.

Deadly = mortal (adjetivo)

Cyanide is a deadly poison.

Fatally = mortalmente, fatalmente (advérbio)

She was fatally injured in the crash.

Fine = well (informal)

That suits me fine. / You're doing fine.

Finely = small careful adjustments

Finely chopped onions.

// EXPRESSÕES INTERESSANTES

Tight = apertado

I can't untie the knot because it is too tight.

Tight = firmly together

Hold tight.

Sharp = afiado

A knife with a sharp blade

Sharp = punctually

Can you be here at six o'clock sharp?

Fast = completely, firmly fixed

He is fast asleep.

He tried to get away, but she held him fast.

PROMILITARES